

North Shore Senior Center Programs for Professionals and Community would like to invite you to....

“Hoarding and the Law”

It's more than reality TV; it's life for many that goes unnoticed or reported in your community. Hoarding has been at the forefront of American's attention recently and has been recently recognized as a mental health disorder. Beside the initial shock of the hoards of "stuff" that lie behind a hoarder's closed doors, what happens when the law steps in?

Presented by:

Kerry Peck,

Managing Partner of Peck Ritchey, LLC

Learning Objectives:

- Participants will review the hoarding continuum.
- Participants will review legal options when dealing with a client who hoards and how a multi-disciplinary team approach may be an effective option.
- Participants will discuss professional and ethical concerns when dealing with a client who hoards.
